

Books

- National Forum on Health (1997). Canada Health Action: Building on the Legacy. Ottawa: Author.
Federal report confirms the value Canadians place on their healthcare system and recognizes the need for its renewal, including extension of public funding.
- Allen, Ted & Gordon, Sydney (1952). The Scalpel the Sword. Toronto: McClelland & Stewart.
Canadian doctor Norman Bethune and his years in the Soviet Union, Spain and China, 1935-39.
- Anders, George (1998). Health Against Wealth: HMOs and the Breakdown of Medical Trust. NYC. Mariner Books.
How HMOs compromise members' healthcare to minimize costs and maximize profits.
Review: http://findarticles.com/p/articles/mi_m1316/is_n1-2_v29/ai_19034241
- Angell, Marcia (2004). The Truth about the Drug Companies. New York: Random House. How the drug companies deceive us and what to do about it.
Ten page book summary at <http://www.wanttoknow.info/truthaboutdrugcompanies>
- Armstrong, Pat, & Armstrong, Hugh (1996). Wasting Away: The Undermining of Canadian Healthcare. Toronto: Oxford University Press.
The logic and results of healthcare cost-cutting and privatization.
- Armstrong, Pat, Armstrong, Hugh, & Fagan, Claudia (1999). Universal Healthcare: What the United States Can Learn From Canada. New York: New Press.
A readable and convincing case for universal healthcare in the US.
- Badgely, Robin & Wolfe, Samuel (1967). Doctor's Strike: Medical Care and Conflict in Saskatchewan. New York: Atherton Press.
A case study of the 1962 Saskatchewan doctors' strike against the province's medical care plan.
- Campbell, Bruce, & Marchildon, Greg (eds.) (2007). Medicare: Facts, Myths, Problems, & Promise. Toronto: James Lorimer and Company.
Thirty four healthcare thinkers, providers and activists discuss Medicare today.
- Epstein, Lewis (1979). The Politics of Cancer. Garden City, New York: Anchor Books.
A compendium of information on the environmental causes of cancer, e.g., the workplace.
- Fuller, Colleen (1998). Caring for Profit. Vancouver: New Star Books.
How corporations are taking over Canada's healthcare system.

Teaching Unit References

Books

- Heeney, Helen (1995). Life Before Medicare: Canadian Experiences. Toronto: Ontario Coalition of Senior Citizens Organizations. Canadian seniors tell of their experiences with healthcare before Medicare. Order form: http://www.web.net/OCSCO/life_before.shtml
- Horn, Joshua (1970). Away with all Pests. New York: Monthly Review Press. An English surgeon in People's China, 1954-1969.
- Houston, C. Stuart (2002). Steps on the Road to Medicare: Why Saskatchewan Led the Way. Montreal & Kingston: McGill-Queen's University Press. A retired radiologist traces the roots of Medicare to the pioneering spirit of the prairies.
- LeBow, Robert (2004). Healthcare Meltdown. Chambersburg PA: Alan C. Hood and Co. What's wrong with America's healthcare and how to fix it.
- Lexchin, Joel (1984). The Real Pushers. Vancouver: New Star Books. A critical analysis of the Canadian drug industry in the early 1980s.
- Lisac, Mark (2004). Alberta Politics Uncovered. Edmonton: Newest Press. Includes commentary on healthcare policy in Alberta (p. 49-52).
- MacDonald, Theodore (1995). Hippocrates in Havana: Cuba's Healthcare System. Knebworth, Herts. UK: Able Publishing. A developmental analysis of Cuba's healthcare system since 1959.
- MacTaggart, Kenneth (1973). The First Decade: The Birth Story of Medicare in Canada and its Development During the Following Ten Years. Ottawa: Canadian Medical Association. A Canadian Medical Association (physicians) history of the first decade of Medicare.
- Marsa, Linda (1997). Prescription for Profits. New York: Scribner. How the pharmaceutical industry bankrolled the unholy marriage between science and business.
- McLeod, Thomas, & McLeod, Ian (2004). Tommy Douglas: The Road to Jerusalem. Saskatoon: Fifth House. A recent biography of the former Saskatchewan premier and his role in Medicare.
- Moynihan, Ray, & Cassels, Alan (2005). Selling Sickness. Vancouver: Douglas & McIntyre. How the world's biggest pharmaceutical companies invent diseases to turn us all into patients.
- Newsholme, Sir Arthur, & Kingsbury, John (1933). Red Medicine: Socialized Health in Soviet Russia. Garden City NY: Doubleday Doran. An eyewitness report on health services in the Soviet Union in the 1930s. (Available from the University of Alberta library.)

Books

- Owen, Peter (2007). Healthcare in France: A Guide for the Expatriate. Figanieres, FR: ExpatHealthDirect Ltd
- Schoen, C., Osborn, R., Huynh, P., et al (2005). "Taking the pulse of healthcare systems: Experiences with health problems in six countries." Health Affairs 10, 509-525.
- Pike, Graham & Selby, David Global (1988). Global Teacher, Global Learner. London: Hodder General Publishing.
- Rachlis, Michael & Kushner, Carol (1994). Strong Medicine: How to Save Canada's Healthcare System. Toronto: Harper & Collins.
- Rachlis, Michael & Kushner, Carol (1989). Second Opinion. Toronto: Harper & Collins.
What is wrong with Canada's healthcare system and how to fix it.
- Raphael, Dennis (2004). Social Determinants of Health. Toronto: Canadian Scholar's Press.
Summarizes how socio-economic factors—e.g., Aboriginal status, early life, employment and working conditions, housing, income, etc—affect the health of Canadians.
- Relman, Dr. Arnold (2007). A Second Opinion: Rescuing America's Healthcare. New York: Public Affairs.
What has gone wrong with American healthcare and how to solve the problems.
- Renouf, Simon (1997). Chipping away at Medicare: "Rome wasn't sacked in a day." In, Harrison, Trevor, & Laxer, Gordon (eds.) The Trojan Horse: Alberta and the Future of Canada. Montreal: Black Rose Books. 223-238.
The Alberta government's attempts to bring in two-tier medicine in the 1990s.
- Richmond, Julius, Fein, Rashi, & Carter, Jimmy (2007). The Healthcare Mess: How We Got Into It and What It Will Take To Get Out. Cambridge MA: Harvard University Press.
A critique of US healthcare and a proposal for government-financed universal health insurance.
- Rivett, Geoffrey (1998) From Cradle to Grave, 50 years of the NHS. London: Kings Fund.
Covers clinical financial/political/organizational developments in the last 50 years. Updates at: www.nhshistory.net
- Saney, Isaac (2005). Cuba: A Revolution in Motion. Black Point NS: Fernwood Publishing. An overview of Cuba including commentary on the healthcare system.

Teaching Unit References

Books

- Sullivan, Terence & Baranek, Patricia (2002). First Do No Harm: Making Sense of Canadian Healthcare Reform. Vancouver: UBC Press.
A concise introduction to healthcare in Canada and various ideas for reforming the system.
- Taft, Kevin (1997). Shredding the Public Interest. Edmonton: University of Alberta Press & Parkland Institute.
The Alberta government's attacks on funding for social programs, including healthcare.
- Taft, Kevin, & Steward, Gillian (2000). Clear Answers: The Economics and Politics of For-Profit Medicine. Edmonton: Duval House.
Analyzes the negatives of for-profit medicine in Alberta.
- Twaddle, Andrew (1999). Healthcare Reform in Sweden, 1980-1994. Westport CN: Auburn.
A description and analysis of the modern Swedish healthcare system.
- Wilson, Donna (ed.) (1995). The Canadian Healthcare System. Edmonton: Author.
A collection of articles about Canadian healthcare, including a history of the Health Act.
- Yalnizyan, Armine (2007). Getting Better Healthcare: Lessons from (and for) Canada. Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives <http://www.policyalternatives.ca/>
Examines trends in Canadian healthcare reform, specifically in governance, economics, human resources and information

Teaching Unit References

Films/Videos/ DVDs

- Bitter Medicine. Part One: The Birth of Medicare.* Tom Shandel. 1983. National Film Board of Canada. 27 min.
Part one of a two-part documentary examining Medicare from conception to 1982. Traces events leading to July 2, 1962, the day Medicare was launched in Saskatchewan. Doctors reacted by going on strike.
- Bloodletting: Life, Death and Healthcare.* Lorna Green. Eatmos Productions. 2004. 67 min.
Parallels and paradoxes of the USA and Cuba and their healthcare systems through the lives of real people.
- Chasing the Cancer Answer.* Wendy Mesley. Fanlight Productions. 2006. 26 min.
CBC journalist and cancer survivor Mesley investigates what is causing high cancer rates and what is being done to prevent the disease. http://www.fanlight.com/catalog/films/479_ctaq.php
Download <http://w.thecancerblog.com/tag/FreeDownload/>
YouTube Clip. 1:43. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zbedfQlsxwM>
- The Constant Gardener.* Fernando Meirelles. Potboiler Productions. 2005. 129 min.
A pharmaceutical company secretly tests a tuberculosis drug with known severe side effects. The subject matter is mature.
- From Cradle to Grave, 50 years of the NHS.* Rivett, Geoffrey (1998) London: Kings Fund.
Covers clinical financial/political/organizational developments in the last 50 years.
Updates at: www.nhshistory.net
- Salud!* MEDICC. 2006. 93min. DVD 3917.
Filmmakers travel with some of the 28,000 Cuban health professionals serving in 68 countries and interview international medical students in Cuba.
- Sicko.* Michael Moore. Dog Eat Dog Films. 2007. 113 min.
An investigation of the U.S. healthcare system, including comparisons with other systems.
- Tommy Douglas: Keeper Of The Flame.* Elsie Swerhone. 1980. National Film Board of Canada. 58 min.
Saskatchewan premier Tommy Douglas and his role in bringing about Medicare.
- Wit.* Mike Nichols. HBO Films. 2001. 98 min.
A professor (Emma Thompson) receives a diagnosis of ovarian cancer and then must deal with the medical system. Based on a Pulitzer Prize-winning play by Margaret Edson.

